and AirPlus International AG, Obstgartenstrasse 27, 8302 Kloten, Switzerland ("AirPlus"), are parties to and have entered into the following agreement: that AirPlus pays, either on the basis of these instructions and mandate, or else through a third party. Each reimbursement request from AirPlus will be set out in the corresponding statement of account. Once the Account has been opened, the Contract partner shall be liable for all claims arising out of use of the Account.

PREAMBLE

The market for means of payment is shared by numerous competing products which can differ in their product design for the holder of the means of payment and the accepting payee, and in the payee's terms of acceptance. The specific use of particular means of payment can result in a relative reduction in transaction costs for the holder of the means of payment, e.g. because the recipient uses differentiated fees or reductions. The AirPlus Debit Account intends to offer an alternative means of payment enabling the holder of the means of payment to realize potential reductions in transaction costs by exploiting the payee's terms of acceptance.

Subject matter of the agreement

The Contract partner can make cash-free payments to contracted companies using their AirPlus Debit Account (the "Account"). The Contract partner hereby irrevocably instructs and empowers AirPlus to settle payment requests from contracted companies by debiting the Account. The Contract partner shall reimburse AirPlus all outstanding amounts.

Bank and Accounting Details

AirPlus will invoice all reimbursement claims and fees accrued and recorded directly to the Subscriber. The invoiced amounts are due immediately and will be collected by direct debit in full. If the invoice is not settled in full within 5 working days from the invoice date, AirPlus charges default interest, in addition to bank fees and reminder costs. Billing is in Swiss Francs (CHF) or in EURO (EUR). Refund claims in currencies other than the billing currency shall be converted into CHF on the posting date, based on the EuroFX (BID-Rate) reference rate of the previous trading day. Should this rate not be available, a corresponding rate achieved in the market shall be used for conversion. The Subscriber shall notify AirPlus of any objections against an account statement within 6 weeks of receipt of such statement.

and date of validity

Unless otherwise notified, AirPlus charges a fee of CHF 4.50 plus VAT per transaction, independent from the transaction amount. Depending on the concrete type of use of the card, AirPlus regularly waives this transaction fee as a whole or in part, subject to the respective applicable Whitelist retrievable at www.airplus.com/debitaccount_chd

Further clauses to the agreement

We hereby make an application for an AirPlus Debit Account Contract under the current terms and conditions, which rank alongside the "AirPlus Debit Account General Terms & Conditions for Switzerland" (August 2011) and which, in case of discrepancies shall prevail. We hereby acknowledge that we have read these, understand them and are in agreement with them. We also declare that we are in agreement with the General Terms and Conditions for the AirPlus Business Travel Portal (if selected).

We further declare that we have filled out the form for identification of the economic beneficiary truthfully.

AirPlus Debit Account: General Terms and Conditions Switzerland

As at: August 2011

1. Definitions

In these General Terms and Conditions, the following terms are used as defined:

- AirPlus International AG ("AirPlus), P.O. Box 8, CH-8058 Zurich Airport, Switzerland, grants the AirPlus Debit Account,
- "Account" shall mean the AirPlus Debit Account provided by AirPlus,
- "Subscriber" shall mean the party to whom AirPlus has provided an Account.
- "Merchant" shall mean the company that accepts payments via the Account,
- "AirPlus Debit Account Contract" ("Contract") shall mean this Contract between AirPlus and the Subscriber referring to the Account,
- "AirPlus Online Service": ("Online Service") provides links to services provided by third parties outside the control of AirPlus. This includes, but is not limited to, the AirPlus Business Travel Portal and the AirPlus Information Manager (if requested by customer).

2. Provision of Accounts

Upon receipt of the application form completed by the Subscriber, AirPlus shall provide an Account to the Subscriber and link it to the address stated on the application form. AirPlus reserves the right to decline applications for any reason whatsoever. The Subscriber can receive a virtual or a physical card for the Account. The Subscriber shall ensure that the Account is signed immediately upon receipt by a duly authorized executive officer.

3. Use of Accounts

The Account entitles the Subscriber to pay services (as described in the Contract and/or in the application form) of AirPlus and the chosen Merchant which the Subscriber uses. Any private use of the Account is expressly prohibited. Vis-à-vis AirPlus, the Subscriber irrevocably accepts every single payment process by presenting the Account or by stating the Account number to the payee at the time of payment, either personally or through an authorized third party. If the Account is deposited with a Merchant or travel agency, the Subscriber shall notify AirPlus of the name and address of such enterprise. The Subscriber is obliged to notify AirPlus without undue delay in writing of any relevant changes, in particular changes of the bank details and addresses. An excerpt from the commercial register shall be submitted without solicitation and without undue delay upon any change in the commercial register (e.g. in the event of a change of the firm name and transformation) or upon request of AirPlus.

4. Use of the AirPlus Online Service

The Subscriber has free access to the Online Services. The Subscriber undertakes to keep the user name and password secret. AirPlus does not assume any responsibility for the use of the Online Services. AirPlus disclaims without limitation all liability for loss or damage of any kind incurred in connection with the use of the Online Service, except for the case of gross negligence or intent on the part of AirPlus. The Subscriber undertakes to comply with all applicable laws (including intellectual property rights and criminal laws) in connection with the use of the Online Services. The Subscriber shall indemnify AirPlus from all claims of third parties arising against AirPlus in connection with the Subscriber's use of the Portal. The Subscriber hereby agrees to the General Terms and Conditions for the AirPlus Business Travel Portal which can be accessed and printed out at www.airplus.com/TC/CHD-en. They may also be made available in other form, if required.

5. Responsibility for the Account

Upon provision of the Account, the Subscriber assumes liability for all claims resulting in connection with the use of the Account. The Subscriber shall take all necessary and reasonable efforts to protect the Account against misuse. The Subscriber shall notify AirPlus without undue delay upon discovery of loss, theft or misuse of the Account by any unauthorized person. The Subscriber shall notify AirPlus without undue delay of any erroneous entries on the invoice of AirPlus or any mistakes on the part of AirPlus.

The Subscriber shall not be liable in the case of theft, loss or forgery, if he or she has undertaken any and all required and reasonable efforts to protect the Account against abuse, and if he or she has informed AirPlus about the loss or abuse of the Account immediately after it has become known, except if the Subscriber has acted with gross negligence or fraudulent intention. In such case, the Subscriber shall be fully liable for the loss. In the event of loss, the Subscriber is liable for loss or misuse of the Account up to a maximum of CHF 100 until notification to AirPlus, unless the Subscriber can provide evidence of gross negligence or fraudulent intent. A handling fee of CHF 20 (plus VAT) is charged for the issue of a replacement Account. In case of improper use of the Account, the parties shall inform each other of all details required for the collection of the claims and/or the closing of the Account. As soon as the Subscriber ceases to be entitled to use its Account provided within the scope of these General Terms and Conditions, the Subscriber shall without undue delay return the Account to AirPlus and refrain from any further use of the Account. In particular, the Subscriber will no longer be entitled to use its Account if it has been declared invalid or has been changed. If the Subscriber has received (a) physical card(s) for its Account(s) from AirPlus, and an invalid, changed Account is not returned to AirPlus, then AirPlus may charge a fee of CHF 100 (plus VAT). The Subscriber is liable for any unreturned Accounts and for all amounts charged via an unreturned Account.

If the Subscriber does not fully settle the invoice by the agreed maturity date, AirPlus will charge default interest in addition to the bank and collection fees, as from the maturity date. The default interest amounts to 9 % p.a., can at any time be changed by AirPlus by unilateral determination, and is in any case limited to the admissible statutory maximum amount. With the following settlement statement, AirPlus shall inform the Subscriber about any changes to the default interest to the Subscriber's disadvantage. AirPlus is entitled to block all Accounts of the Subscriber for the duration of default.

6. Counterclaims and Set-off

AirPlus is not liable for any non-acceptance of the Account, for whatever reason, by a Merchant or other person authorized to accept the Account. The Subscriber shall not be entitled to refuse to pay amounts invoiced by AirPlus as a result of any dispute between the Subscriber and a Merchant or any other entitled person, or any claim by the Subscriber against AirPlus or any Merchant authorized by AirPlus. This provision does not hold if AirPlus comes to the conclusion that no factual or legal reason exists for the claims of the Merchant. Disputes as referred to herein are considered to be particularly those that deal with the Subscriber's assertion of claims due to poor service or lack of service or failures on the side of the Merchant, or other objections by the Subscriber against Merchant or another person entitled to this. The Subscriber is not entitled to offset receivables with counterclaims against AirPlus or a Merchant, unless the claim is acknowledged by AirPlus or is the subject of a final and non-appealable decision of a court. The Subscriber is not entitled to assert a right of retention.

7. Bank Guarantee / Collateral

AirPlus may demand the creation of banking collateral for all claims arising from the business relationship with the Subscriber, even if the claims are conditional. If AirPlus has first fully or partially refrained from requesting the creation or increase of collateral, AirPlus may later still demand collateralization and/or increase. This, however, requires that circumstances occur or become known which justify an increased risk assessment of the claims against the Subscriber. This can be the case in particular if the economic situation of the Subscriber has unfavorably changed or threatens to change unfavorably, or if the existing collateral has deteriorated or threatens to deteriorate in value. Until creation or increase of the collateral, AirPlus shall be entitled to block any Accounts provided to the Subscriber. AirPlus does not have a collateralization claim if it has been expressly agreed that the subscriber does not have to furnish collateral or exclusively the collateral named individually. AirPlus will grant to the Subscriber a reasonable period of time for the creation or increase of collateral. Should AirPlus intend to exercise its right to termination without notice if the Subscriber does not timely comply with its obligation to create or increase collateral, AirPlus shall prior thereto inform the Subscriber accordingly.

8. Credit Balance on the Account

The Account is a means to centrally pay for services rendered by AirPlus and for business travel services rendered by selected Merchants of AirPlus. In the event that the Account exceptionally shows a credit balance not caused by crediting a previously debited amount, but is, as the case may be, based on the fact that the Subscriber has entrusted a third party acting on its behalf to receive the refund of value added tax paid on business travel- and/or other services rendered abroad, and that it is deemed agreed that such refunds shall be remitted to AirPlus for crediting to the Account of the Subscriber, the following shall apply:

- The credit balance can be used only for payments relating to business travel services by use of the Account;
- A claim for disbursement, whether in cash or cashless, does not exist. The foregoing restrictions also apply in all other events in which credit balances arise on the Account for any reason whatsoever.

AirPlus Debit Account: General Terms and Conditions Switzerland

AirPlus

As at: August 2011

9. Additional Data

If the Subscriber requests additional data exceeding the standard billing information, the Subscriber shall enter into a corresponding service agreement with the Merchant or with the travel agency it uses. The Subscriber shall not be entitled to withhold or reduce payment of individual or all invoiced amounts on the grounds that any additional data do not at all, only in part, or insufficiently appear on the statement of account. AirPlus is not obliged to subsequent improvement.

10. Fees, Billing and Remuneration

The amount of the fees and remuneration arises from the Contract and/or from the AirPlus Debit Account application form, and is charged to the Subscriber once a year in advance. Additional services rendered by AirPlus upon request of the Subscriber will be charged separately. The fees are not reimbursable. AirPlus is entitled to postpone billing if this seems useful (e.g. in the case of minor amounts).

11. Data Processing

It is known to the Subscriber that AirPlus stores, changes, transfers or uses accounting data and additional data, or receives data from third parties, within the scope of the intended purpose of this contractual relationship and as a means for performing its own business purpose. It is furthermore known to the Subscriber that AirPlus transfers or uses accounting data and additional data in the interest of third parties. The accounting data or additional data can contain personal data of the Subscriber's employees which are subject to data protection. The Subscriber therefore warrants that the legal data protection requirements for the storage and/or transfer of such data by AirPlus are met. Insofar as AirPlus transfers to the Subscriber any raw data for the generation of data for analysis and assessment, the Subscriber warrants to AirPlus that the company has sufficiently concrete travel guidelines and that these are known to the employees, that it has been ensured that in the concrete booking situation the employees are aware or can be aware of the fact that they might violate the travel quidelines.

that the employees and the representation of the employees have been informed that AirPlus provides comprehensive data to enable the Subscriber to monitor the compliance with the travel guidelines.

12. Commencement and Termination of Contract

The Contract enters into force upon submission of an offer by the Subscriber's signing, acceptance by AirPlus and provision of the Account Data. Either Party can terminate the Contract in writing with a notice period of thirty days. Termination can be restricted to individual Accounts.

Termination of the Subscriber takes effect upon blocking of the terminated Account. Termination for good cause is possible at any time. Good cause is in particular given if a) the Subscriber culpably and sustainably violates its cooperation obligations or b) if the Subscriber fails to meet its payment or other obligations under this agreement or c) AirPlus gains knowledge of the fact that the Subscriber encounters or is threatened to encounter economic difficulties, and/or if a petition for opening of insolvency or any similar proceedings has been filed, or if such proceedings have been opened or rejected or d) if the Subscriber does not comply with its obligation to create or increase collateral according to section 7 or under any other agreement within a reasonable period of time fixed by AirPlus or e) the Subscriber requests and is granted suspension of payments or f) the Subscriber closes down or liquidates its business or takes steps to that effect, or g) if any collateral ceases to exist or h) the Subscriber culpably and sustainably fails to co-operate within the scope of combating money laundering, e.g. culpably and sustainably fails to provide substantiation or culpably and sustainably fails to give information. Upon termination; all claims of AirPlus against the Subscriber fall due with immediate effect. After termination of the contractual relationship, AirPlus shall remit any credit balance to the Subscriber.

13. Changes and Amendments

AirPlus shall notify the Subscriber in text format of any changes or amendments to the contractual provisions. They are deemed acknowledged, unless the Subscriber objects to them in writing within thirty days. If the Subscriber objects within the 30-day period, the changed or amended contractual provisions shall nonetheless be deemed acknowledged if the Subscriber continues to use the Account(s). AirPlus will explicitly point out such consequence to the Subscriber upon notification of the changes or amendments. Apart therefrom, the Parties shall agree on individual changes and amendments to these Terms and Conditions in writing only. They must be identified as such and require signing by both Parties.

14. Other Parties and Agreements

AirPlus shall be entitled to involve vicarious agents for fulfillment of the Contract as a whole or in parts. The Subscriber agrees that such third parties gain access to various master data of the Subscriber within the scope and to the extent required for their activities. AirPlus is furthermore entitled to transfer the rights and obligations under this Contract to third parties at any time. The Subscriber already here and now consents thereto. The Subscriber is not entitled to assign claims against AirPlus to any third party, or to assert retention rights against AirPlus.

15. Severability Clause

If any provision of these contractual terms or any provision within the scope of other agreements is entirely or partially invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the other provisions. The Parties shall replace any invalid provision by a valid provision by which the economic purpose of the contractual terms and/or other agreements as pursued by the invalid provision is best achieved. The same applies to the closing of any contractual gaps.

16. Final Provisions / Place of Performance / Place of Jurisdiction

The Contract is subject to Swiss law. Inasmuch as lawfully permissible, the exclusive place of jurisdiction shall be Kloten.
