- 8.13 The Subscriber shall not be entitled to withhold or reduce payment of invoiced amounts on the grounds that any additional data does not in its entirety, or only in part, or insufficiently appear on the invoice.
- 8.14 Transactions shall be settled in the Account currency even if they are made in currencies other than the Account currency. Charges in currencies other than the Account currency shall be converted to the Account currency using a conversion rate based on the conversion rates of one or more major banks or on the conversion rates of MasterCard Worldwide and/or VISA International on the banking day before the date of the transaction. - 10.4 Where AirPlus concludes that the claim made by any merchant does not have a reasonable basis in fact or law it will attempt to charge the transaction back to the merchant. This will not release the Subscriber's liability to pay for the transaction unless the charge back to the merchant actually occurs.
- 10.5 All amounts due under the Contract shall be paid in full without any deduction or withholding other than as required by law. The Subscriber shall not be entitled to assert any credit, set off or counterclaim against AirPlus in order to justify withholding payment of any such amount in whole or part.
- 11 COMMENCEMENT AND TERMINATION OF CONTRACT
- 11.1 The Contract shall commence on the date when it has been signed by both parties.
- 11.2 The Contract shall continue in force for the Initial Term, subject to Condition 11.4.
- 11.3 After the expiry of the Initial Term either party may terminate the Contract by giving the other party 30 days prior written notice to expire on the date of expiry of the Initial Term or thereafter on any anniversary of the date the Initial Term began.
- 11.4 AirPlus may terminate the Contract at any time with immediate effect if:
- 11.4.1 the Subscriber commits a material breach of any term of the Contract and (if such breach is remediable) fails to remedy that breach within a period of 14 days after being notified in writing to do so;
- 11.4.2 an event of insolvency occurs in respect of the Subscriber; or any other event or series of events whether related or not (including any material adverse changes in the Subscriber's business, assets or financial condition) occurs which in the reasonable opinion of AirPlus, may affect the ability or willingness of the Subscriber to comply with all or any of its obligations or to meet any of its liabilities under the Contract;
- 11.4.3 required to do so by law or regulation;
- 11.4.4 in the absolute discretion of AirPlus the Account becomes uncommercial for AirPlus;

- 11.5 The Subscriber may terminate the Contract if an event of insolvency occurs in respect of AirPlus.
- 11.6 The expression "an event of insolvency" means the inability of a party to pay its debts, entry into liquidation either compulsory or voluntary (except for the purposes of solvent amalgamation or reconstruction), the passing of a resolution for a creditor's winding up, the making of a proposal to a party and its creditors for a composition or satisfaction of its debts or a scheme of arrangement of its affairs, the application to the court for an administration order or the appointment of a receiver or administrative receiver.
- 11.7 Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Contract or these Terms and Conditions, the expiry or termination of the Contract shall:
- 11.7.1 be without prejudice to any accrued rights and obligations of third parties under the Contract as at the date of such termination both for antecedent breaches and otherwise; and
- 11.7.2 not affect the continuing rights and obligations of the parties which are expressed as surviving termination or which are required to give effect to such termination or the consequences of such termination.
- 11.8 On termination of the Contract for whatever reason the Subscriber shall cease to be entitled to use the Account and shall forthwith settle all outstanding balances.
- 12 DATA
- 12.1 The Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that AirPlus will collect, process and store data about the Subscriber's use of the Account ("Data") and that this may involve the exchange of such Data with the Subscriber and third parties in connection with the operation of the Account. Some of that Data may include personal Data as defined under the applicable data protection legislation. AirPlus and the Subscriber acknowledge that for the purposes of the applicable data protection legislation, AirPlus is the Data Controller of any personal Data provided to it by the Subscriber, and that where necessary the Subscriber has the consent of individuals to provide the personal Data to AirPlus.
- 12.2 The parties undertake to comply with the applicable regulations regarding data protection. The Subscriber warrants vis-à-vis AirPlus that the Subscriber's company has a reasonably concrete travel policy in place, that such policy is known to the Subscriber's employees, that the Subscriber has ensured and will continue to ensure that the Subscriber's employees are aware or can become aware that in specific booking situations they may infringe upon the travel policy, and that the Subscriber's employees and their representatives have been informed that AirPlus provides comprehensive data to enable the Subscriber to control compliance with the Subscriber's travel policy.
- 12.3 If the Subscriber requests the Electronic Data Interchange Service AirPlus will transmit the requested data electronically for the purpose of software-supported preparation of travel expense reports and/or financial accounting. The Subscriber is to use this data for your internal purposes only. AirPlus transmits the requested data to the Subscriber in performance of this agreement, i.e. in pursuit of AirPlus' own business and not as your data processor. Individuals (i.e. employees) have rights under data protection laws in most European and many other countries. This may inter alia and without limitation mean that the Subscriber needs to obtain all necessary consents for the processing of personal data from any individual whose personal data is transmitted to or by AirPlus, an AirPlus Company or AirPlus Partner Bank at any time by or to you or a group company of you and these consents shall include approvals to AirPlus processing such data.
- 12.4 To the extent AirPlus collects and processes personal data on its own behalf, such collection and processing will be limited to the extent required and will be subject to AirPlus' privacy statement, a copy of which can be found at www.airplus.com/contractual_information and may be updated from time to time. The Subscriber pledges to make AirPlus' privacy statement known to the Subscriber's staff members without undue delay.
- 13 CHANGES AND AMENDMENTS

- 13.1.4 to reflect alterations in the scope and nature of the service
- AirPlus is able to provide the Subscriber and any changes in market practice and overall customer demand.
- 13.2 If AirPlus makes any changes or a number of minor changes, it is likely that it will issue a new set of Terms and Conditions which will be available via email or letter. A paper copy of the Terms and Conditions will only be available on request.
- 13.3 AirPlus shall notify the Subscriber electronically of any changes or amendments. The Subscriber shall have a period of 30 days from the date of notification of the changes to raise any objections and this should be done electronically by sending an email to london@airplus.com.
- 13.4 If the Subscriber does not raise any objections within the 30 day period, it shall be deemed to have accepted the changes. If the Subscriber does raise objections and those objections cannot be resolved within 90 days of the date of the objection being raised, then either party may in its discretion then give 30 days notice of termination. If no notice of termination is served within 151 days of the date of the objection being raised and no agreement has been reached, then the Subscriber is deemed to accept the changes and no longer has a right to terminate the Contract pursuant to this clause.
- 14 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
- 14.1 To the fullest extent permitted by law all conditions, warranties and representations expressed or implied by statute, common law or otherwise in relation to the operation and use of the Account are excluded.

- 14.4 Nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall operate to exclude or restrict AirPlus' liability for:
- 14.4.1 death or personal injury resulting from its negligence;
 - 14.4.2 fraud of AirPlus; or
 - 14.4.3 any matter for which it would be illegal for it to exclude or attempt to exclude or limit liability.

AirPlus shall not have any liability to the Subscriber whether in, tort (including but limited to negligence), breach of statutory duty, under statute, restitution, misrepresentation or otherwise (in each case whether caused by negligence or otherwise) arising out of any breach or termination of the Contract or the performance of the Contract by AirPlus unless a claim is issued and served within one year after the date of termination or expiry of the Contract, and in the case of post termination obligations within one year of the date of such breach occurring.

15 NO WAIVER

No delay, neglect or forbearance from AirPlus in enforcing any condition of these Terms and Conditions will be deemed to be a waiver of or in any way prejudice any right AirPlus may have under these Terms and Conditions.
